About Chromotherapy

History documents the beneficial uses of colour dating back to ancient Egyptian cultures who built solariums fitted with coloured panes of glass to bathe the occupant in colour. Many cultures believe that chromotherapy or colour therapy can be beneficial in promoting healing to the mind and body, and who are we to argue?

What we do know is that different colours can create an ambiance, and a general feeling of well being. Our tiny, twinkling, chromotherapy lights, reflect the colours of the rainbow and are designed to give the user the option of bathing in a sea of harmonious colours, gently fading from one to another, or to select a favourite that reflects their mood of the moment

Just dim your bathroom lights and treat yourself to some, or all of the following:

Red - The colour of life, the glowing sun and fire - and of course, desire

Orange - An energising, cheerful symbol of the rising sun, to make us feel alert - a great wake up call

Yellow - The brightest of the colours symbolising the sun at the horizon - rise and shine each morning

Green - Nature at its most verdant, harmonious and positive - a great motivator

Blue - The colour of peace and infinity and the most perfect summer sky - drift away to a state of repose and tranquillity

Indigo - A cooling, relaxing and calming colour - complete chill out

Violet - Just the right hue to indulge in a little meditation - gather your thoughts and file away those uncertainties
