AS WE WERE

Images from forty years of Life in Britain

The As We Were Reminiscence Book is the third in a series of books created specifically for people living with dementia, with input from local dementia champions and care home dementia specialists.

- Suitable for use in care homes, day centres, or as a shared experience with family & friends
- 24 pages in large A4 size for easy reading & viewing

Take a trip down memory lane; we begin with fashions of the ages, from the trilby hat to the Bay City Roller girls of the 1970s.

We continue with the trades and professions of yesteryear; The businessmen and girls in the office & typing pool, the milkman at the door, miners working underground, and the shopkeepers on the high street.

A very simplistic book

The illustrations throughout are identical to the front cover that's shown above, and there are also colouring in pages located in certain chapters.

This book is great for individuals with dementia, Alzheimer's, or cognitive loss, however please be aware that these books may not be suitable for people with early/mild cognitive loss.

The feedback from a small number of our customers is that they underestimated how simplistic the images would be and the end-user was unhappy with them.
