Memo Function

The Talking Memo Watch Black offers a most convenient way to record a sound or conversation on the go, it can be used to recall the bay you parked your car in or a person's telephone number. This helpful fashionable watch also has talking function to speak the time at the touch of a button. The rectangular watch dial houses the recording parts and speaker above a clear LCD screen that shows the time in 12 or 24-hour format.

How to use

The right side of the watch holds the 3 function buttons: talk, record and play.

1. To use the recording feature the user needs to hold the watch within 1 inch (2.5cm) from their mouth whilst they press and hold the 'record' button
2. After 12 seconds the recording will stop automatically (if you would like to end the recording sooner, simply release the button)
3. To recall this message simply press the 'Play' button
