A Care Plan Box is an effective method of storing highly valuable care plans, and if used correctly, can provide a wealth of benefits to people with dementia, their carers and families.

- Robust, secure, and large enough to accommodate a care plan folder
- Keyless access using a digitally coded access system
- Attractive design
- Dimensions: 400 x 400 x 120mm

History of conception

Collaboration between the University of Bradford's Dementia Group and The Royal British Legion Homes revealed a need to keep people's Care Plans in their own room.

In practice, there are issues concerning the feasibility of maintaining and consulting a Care Plan when it is located (as they typically are) in a central office, which may be some considerable distance from the resident's room.

The natural conclusion was that storing the Care Plan in the residents room would help ensure that Care Plans are always up to date and accessible to consult. Consequently, this Care Plan Box design was manufactured and implemented throughout the Royal British Legion Homes and has since been adopted in many homes where this strategy is considered to be beneficial.
