- Guided completion - Box frame helps to assemble the pieces and prompt questions

How it works

All of our puzzles have been designed and tested to help users in the early to mid-point of their dementia journey complete a puzzle unassisted and the Seaside Nostalgia puzzle is no exception.

- One of the more challenging puzzles in the ActiveMinds range
- The size and shape of each piece, the colours used and the unique collection of images have all been designed and tested to help users in early-mid stages complete the puzzles unassisted
- Images have been carefully chosen to allow for visual impairment and to spark memories and conversation once completed

Seaside Nostalgia

Building sandcastles, watching Punch and Judy and enjoying ice creams are all moments we remember from our seaside holidays. This painting captures that fun and excitement.

The artist, Trevor Mitchell, delights in recreating the past on canvas through careful research and is well known for his nostalgic and authentic scenes.

Questions to ask

- What does this picture remind you of?
