The Scentscape is an innovative and unique sensory product that can be used by individuals, or as a group exercise.

The Tool Shed

The Tool Shed Scentscape® pack has been designed to stimulate memories of afternoons spent working away in the tool shed, making and mending things for the home.

Combine the unmistakable scents of engine oil, sawdust and car polish with the sounds of effort and elbow grease to create a warm feeling of familiarity and engagement for any DIY enthusiast.

How Scentscapes Work

Scentscapes were designed to offer somebody both sound and scents of various popular experiences.

Our research showed these to be powerful tools to help transport people to a time or place, stimulating memories and conversation and helping to access memories that would otherwise have been difficult to reach.
